

Sopwith Scout (Pup) N6185 of No. 4 (Naval) Squadron, Apr - May 1917. Built by the Sopwith Aviation Company. Pilot Australian Flight Sub-Lieutenant C.J. Moir: Scored two victories before being shot down and killed on the 10th May 1917 in this aircraft near Zeebrugge. He was 21 years old.

Note: This set contains white decals on a transparent background. A light grey background has been added to help visualise these decals. This is not included in the final product.

Original Aircraft and Scale Model Dimensions:

	Original	3rd	4th	5th	6th	7th
Length:	5.89m	1,963mm	1,473mm	1,178mm	982mm	841mm
Wingspan:	8.07m	2,690mm	2,018mm	1,614mm	1,345mm	1,153mm
	Original	8th	9th	10th	12th	16th
Length:	5.89m	736mm	654mm	589mm	491mm	368mm
Wingspan:	8.07m	1,009mm	897mm	807mm	673mm	504mm
	Original	24th	32nd	48th	72nd	144th
Length:	5.89m	245.4mm	184.1mm	122.7mm	81.8mm	40.6mm
Wingspan:	8.07m	336.3mm	252.2mm	168.1mm	112.1mm	56.0mm